

Multidimensional Intelligence Test (IQ Test)

Purpose: MIT measures several factors of intelligence, namely logical reasoning, math skills, language abilities, spatial relations skills, knowledge retained and the ability to solve novel problems.

No. of questions: 109

Question type: Numerical, verbal, image-based

Estimated completion time: 90 minutes

Shorter versions of assessment: N/A

Report Includes:

- Summary
- Introduction
- Graphs
- Detailed narrative interpretation
- Strengths and Limitations
- Advice

Factors and Scales:

Overall IQ Score plus 2 factors, divided into 12 scales:

- Fluid Intelligence: Assesses the capacity to learn and analyze new information.
- Crystallized Intelligence Assesses accumulated and retained knowledge.

12 Scales:

Spatial Matrices
2D-3D Images
Logical
Arguments
Puzzles
Verbal
Vocabulary
Analogies
Numerical
Arithmetic
Graphs & Charts

APPLICATION:

Self-improvement
Skill development
Pre-employment

